

Marissa Carney

Marissa Carney began dancing at the age of two at Sharon's School of Dance in Indiana, PA.

As a high school student, she became an assistant coach for her studio's gymnastics program, as well as an instructor in tap, jazz, and ballet. Marissa earned a bachelor's degree in communications media and a minor in dance at Indiana University of Pennsylvania where she was a member of the college's Concert Dance troupe.

Marissa found her home here at Holliday Dance in 2004. She is an instructor of jazz, tap, hip hop, lyrical, acro, and modern. She has received many overall high-scoring awards at competitions for her jazz, hip hop, and modern pieces. Marissa is also the Media Relations Coordinator at Penn State Altoona.
